

Privacy Policy

1. PART 1 – ABOUT THIS POLICY

1.1 Purpose

Umbrella Speech Pathology is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information we collect and hold about individuals.

Umbrella Speech Pathology complies with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), other privacy laws that govern how private sector health service providers like Umbrella Speech Pathology handle your child's personal information (including your health information), and Speech Pathology Australia's Code of Ethics (2010).

This Privacy Policy explains how Umbrella Speech Pathology manages the personal information we collect, use and disclose.

Umbrella Speech Pathology is a private speech pathology practice under the ownership of Director Chloe Turner.

2. PART 2 – HOW UMBRELLA SPEECH PATHOLOGY HANDLES YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

2.1 Umbrella Speech Pathology's Legal Obligations

In order to provide you with the health care services that you have requested, Umbrella Speech Pathology will need to collect and use your child's personal information. If you provide incomplete or inaccurate information to us or withhold personal and health information from us we may not be able to provide your child with the services you are seeking.

2.2 What information does Umbrella Speech Pathology collect?

We will only collect the information we need for the particular function or activity we are carrying out.

We collect information from you that is necessary to provide your child with speech pathology services and to manage our relationship with you. The information we collect includes: your child's name, date of birth, address, health fund details and information about their health history and family history. We require this information to assist the speech pathologist to diagnose and treat your child.

2.3 How does Umbrella Speech Pathology collect health information?

We will usually collect your child's health information directly from you. Sometimes, we may need to collect information about your child from a third party (such as a relative or another health service provider).

2.4 How does Umbrella Speech Pathology use your information?

Umbrella Speech Pathology uses your child's personal information for the purpose you have given the information to us. We will use your child's information to provide speech pathology services, to manage our relationship with your child and to contact you in relation to matters concerning your child's care. We may also use your child's information for other purposes permitted under the Privacy Act 1988.

Who might we disclose your information to?

We may disclose your information to the following people:

(a) disclosure to other health professionals involved in your treatment

Your child's personal information will generally only be used by the speech pathologist involved in your care, however on occasion your child's care may be provided by a number of health professionals (for example., speech pathologist, occupational therapist and/or psychologist) working or consulting together. We may disclose your child's information to these health professionals as part of the process of providing your child's care and to other health professionals involved in your child's care.

(b) the referrer

Umbrella Speech Pathology will usually send a discharge summary to the referrer (i.e., your medical practitioner) following discharge from Umbrella Speech Pathology or at other times, as required for your child's care.

If you do not wish us to provide a copy of your child's discharge summary to the referrer you must let us know. Also, if the referrer's details have changed please let us know.

(c) Relatives, guardian, close friends or legal representative

We may provide information about your condition to other relatives, close personal friends, guardians, or to a responsible person for you if necessary, unless you tell us that you do not wish us to disclose your child's health information to any such person.

Other uses and disclosures

In order to provide the best possible environment in which to treat your child, we may also use or disclose your child's personal and health information where necessary for:

- activities such as quality assurance processes, accreditation, audits, risk and claims management, patient satisfaction surveys and staff education and training;
- invoicing, billing and account management;
- to liaise with your health fund, Medicare or the Department of Veteran's Affairs and where required provide information to your health fund, or Medicare to verify treatment provided to your child;
- the purpose of sending you standard reminders, for example for appointments and follow-up care, by text message or email to the number or address which you have provided to us.

(f) Other uses with your consent

With your consent we may also use your child's information for other purposes such as including you on a marketing mail list, or research. Please note, however, that unless you provide us with your express consent for this purpose, we will not use you or your child's information in this way. We will not disclose your personal information to any individual who is outside Australia.

2.5 Access to and correction of your health information

You have a right to access the personal and health information that we hold about your child. You can also request an amendment to your child's personal and health information should you believe that it is inaccurate.

If we do not agree to change your child's medical record/personal information in accordance with your request, we will permit you to make a statement of the requested changes and we will enclose this with your record.

Should you wish to obtain access to or request changes to your child's health record you can ask for our Privacy Officer (see details below) who can give you more detailed information about Umbrella Speech Pathology's access and correction procedure.

Please note that Umbrella Speech Pathology may recover reasonable costs associated with supplying this information to you.

2.6 Data Quality

Umbrella Speech Pathology will take reasonable steps to ensure that your child's personal information which we may collect, use or disclose is accurate, is complete and up-to-date.

2.7 Data Security

Umbrella Speech Pathology will take reasonable steps to protect your child's personal information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. We use technologies and processes such as access control procedures, network firewalls, encryption and physical security to protect your child's privacy.

Umbrella Speech Pathology will destroy or permanently de-identify any of your child's information which is in its possession or control and which is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was collected provided. Umbrella Speech Pathology is not required under an Australian law or court/tribunal or otherwise to retain the information.

2.8 What to do if you have a complaint about privacy issues

If:

- (a) you have questions or comments about this Privacy Policy;
- (b) Umbrella Speech Pathology does not agree to provide you with access to your personal information; or
- (c) you have or a complaint about our information handling practices,

You can lodge a complaint with or contact our Privacy Officer on the details below. We will promptly review your complaint and provide a response to you.
